Club committees are charged with carrying out the annual and long-range strategic goals of the club. The president-elect, president, and immediate past president should work together to ensure continuity of leadership and succession planning. When feasible, committee members should be appointed to the same committee for three years to ensure consistency. The president-elect is responsible for appointing committee members to fill vacancies, appointing committee chairs, and conducting planning meetings prior to the start of the year in office. It is recommended that the chair have previous experience as a member of the committee. Standing committees should be appointed as follows:

Bylaws of the Rotary Club of Wakefield/Wake Forest

- (c) Each chair shall be responsible for regular meetings and activities of the committee, shall supervise and coordinate the work of the committee, and shall report to the board on all committee activities.

Article 10 Duties of Committees

The duties of all committees shall be established and reviewed by the president for his or her year. In declaring the duties of each, the president shall reference appropriate RI materials and the Avenues of Service when developing plans for the year.

Each committee shall have a specific mandate, clearly defined goals, and action plans established by the beginning of each year for implementation during the course of the year. It shall be the primary responsibility of the president-elect to provide the necessary leadership to prepare a recommendation for club committees, mandates, goals, and plans for presentation to the board in advance of the commencement of the year as noted above.

Article 11 Leave of Absence

Upon written application to the board (which can be by email), setting forth good and sufficient cause, leave of absence may be granted by the Board at its discretion on a case-by-case basis. excusing a member from attending the meetings of the club. There is no fixed reason why the leave will be granted and while the reason must be disclosed, the decision will not be made based on the requesting member's reason alone. A member must ensure that their dues (excluding future meal costs) and other amounts outstanding are paid in full before leave will be agreed.

Generally, leave of absence is appropriate when the member will miss at least three weekly meetings but intends to return to the Club within three (3) months. Longer absences suggest that the member consider a voluntary resignation so that the Club can better address semi-annual Rotary International dues, plan correctly for meals and meet attendance goals. Leave of absence can be renewed for a total leave time of up to twelve months, although for medical reasons, or after the birth, adoption or foster care of a child the board may renew such leave for more than twelve months.

It is expected that an application for leave, stating the beginning and ending dates of the absence will be submitted and approved before leave is taken. This requirement, however, will be waived where the leave is necessitated by unexpected events.

Rotarians on approved Leave of Absence will be exempt from paying for meals and contributions to the Rotary Foundation. They must continue to pay Club Dues (which includes their dues to District and Rotary International). Failure to pay Club Dues in a timely manner while on Leave of Absence will be taken as resignation from Rotary.

Members on leave of absence are permitted to attend any club meeting or function, so long as they pay meal or other costs. Each situation will be different, but if practical members on leave should continue to participate in other club events and fundraisers (ie all activities except the regular weekly meetings).

An announcement will be made to the Club when a Leave of Absence is granted.

(Note: Such leave of absence does operate to prevent a forfeiture of membership; it does not operate to give the club credit for the member's attendance. Unless the member attends a regular meeting of some other club, the excused member must be recorded as absent except that absence authorized under the provisions of the Standard Rotary Club Constitution is not computed in the attendance record of the club.)
